

Colney Heath School ~ GEOGRAPHY

Topic: Weather / Climate	Year: 1 Spring Term	Identify seasonal and daily weather patterns in the United Kingdom and the location of hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator and the North and South Poles
What should I already know?	Pictures	Vocabulary
The country I live in is called England		weather
There is different weather on different days in the uk - EYFS		seasons	Winter and Autumn are colder times of the year . Spring and Summer are the warmer times of the year.
There are different seasons - EYFS		hot	Is a high temperature cold	Is a low temperature
		equator	Imaginary line round the world splits it in to Northern Hemisphere and southern hemisphere
By the end of our project we will know:		North Pole	Northern most part of the world
There are seasonal and daily weather patterns in UK		South Pole	Southern most part of the globe
The location of hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator and the North and South Poles		temperature	How hot or cold something is climate	Is like the weather but over a long time

		Physical Geography
	The Big Picture		