

Colney Heath School ~ GEOGRAPHY

Topic: The United Kingdom: Counties and Cities	Year: 5	Name and locate counties and cities of the United Kingdom, geographical regions and their identifying human and physical characteristics, key topographical features (including hills, mountains, coasts and rivers), and land-use patterns; and understand how some of these aspects have changed over time
What should I already know?	Diagrams	Vocabulary
The United Kingdom is made up of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland –Yr2 / Yr3		city	A large town, often with a cathedral.
School is situated in Colney Heath. This is a village in St Albans, Hertfordshire. Hertfordshire is a county.- Yr1		coast	Part of the land that is adjoining or near to the sea.
Comparison made between Colney Heath and a seaside town in UK – Yr1		compass points	Mark directions.
By the end of our project we will know that:		country	A nation with its own government.
Location: Map of UK with counties and physical features		county	A territorial division.
Physical Features: Key rivers and mountains of UK Changes to the coastline - erosion		human features	A place or area that has been built by humans.
Human Features: Key towns, cities and monuments of the UK Changes to the UK over time - population		landmark	A feature that can easily be seen.
Diversity: Languages and accents		physical features	Natural landmarks population	Number of people living in a specific place.
		rural	Characteristics of the countryside.
		urban	Characteristics of a town or a built up area.
	The Big Picture – Understanding where I live.	Location, Physical features, Human features, Diversity	